FEZ-MEKNES

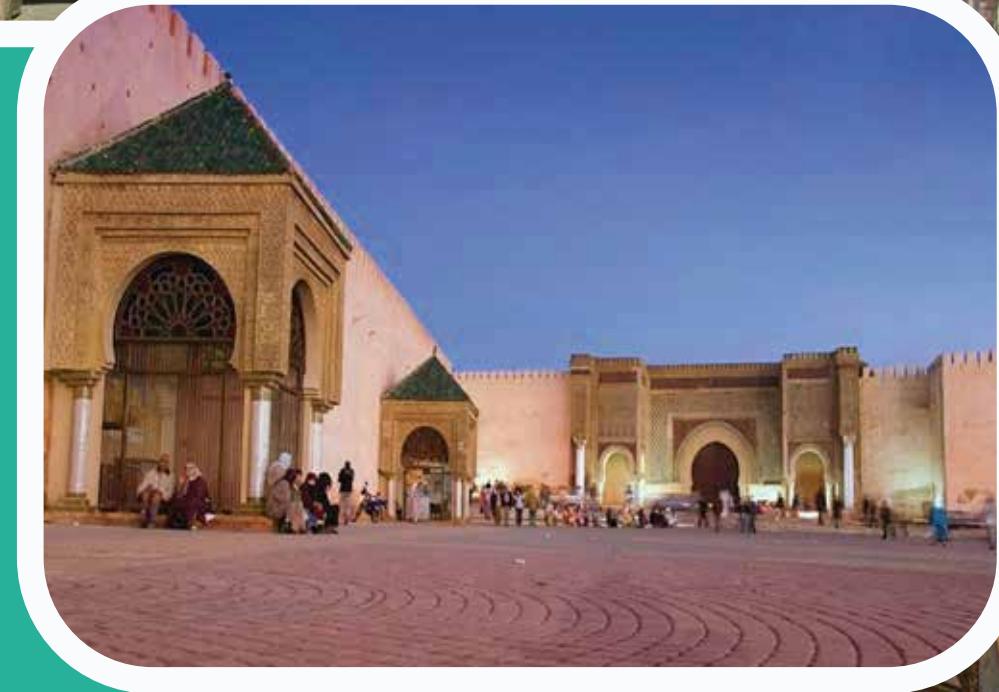

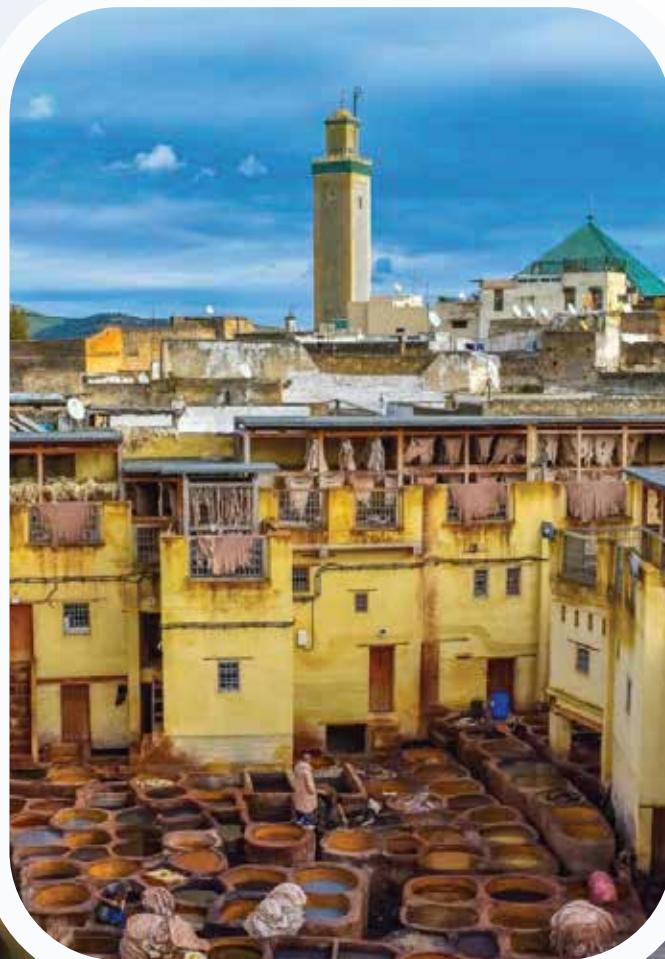

Imperial pearls

Fez radiates a singular aura. It is the Imperial, the depositary of thirteen centuries of Moroccan history.

Meknes is rich with a prestigious past and reserve unexpected surprises. Cross the walls of the famous Medina of Fez, distinguished by UNESCO in as an outstanding universal value. Wander the streets randomly from the Fes-el-Bali district. The Bab Boujloud door is the easiest access for enter the Medina.

North of Meknes lies the largest Roman archaeological site in Morocco : Volubilis. Arc de triomphe, capitole, House of Bacchus, all testifies to the pomp the city and its economic and political weight.

In May, the squares and alleys resonate with world music: the festival of Sacred Music of the World stands in the ancient imperial capital. It is, with the Jazz in Riads one of the main events of the cultural calendar of the city. Do not leave without having tasted the gastronomy of the city, renowned as one of the best in the world.

CHEFCHAOUEN

The beautiful blue

Chefchaouen is a city with a very special character, in addition to being built in mountainside. But if it fascinates travelers so much, it is that it clears an impression of Unreal. The facades of his houses are tinted with blue and white. White, the whole city seems bathed in Azure. We walk there like in a dream.

However, Chefchaouen is much more than a simple adornment. The city is full attractions. Its heritage is rich. There is the Medina, small but authentic: borrowing its lanes is to mingle with the local population, smell the aromas freshly baked bread, tajines cleverly prepared. There is also the Kasbah that stands in the middle of the old neighborhood: its lush gardens are a haven of freshness in the very heart of the city. Its museum is also worth a visit: there is a collection of weapon sold, some photos of the city, textiles too.

Taking advantage of its location, Chefchaouen is also a paradise for walkers. The surrounding mountains are crisscrossed with trails that offer pleasant hiking prospects.

Give your stay the look of a dream and discover the "little blue city" !

RABAT

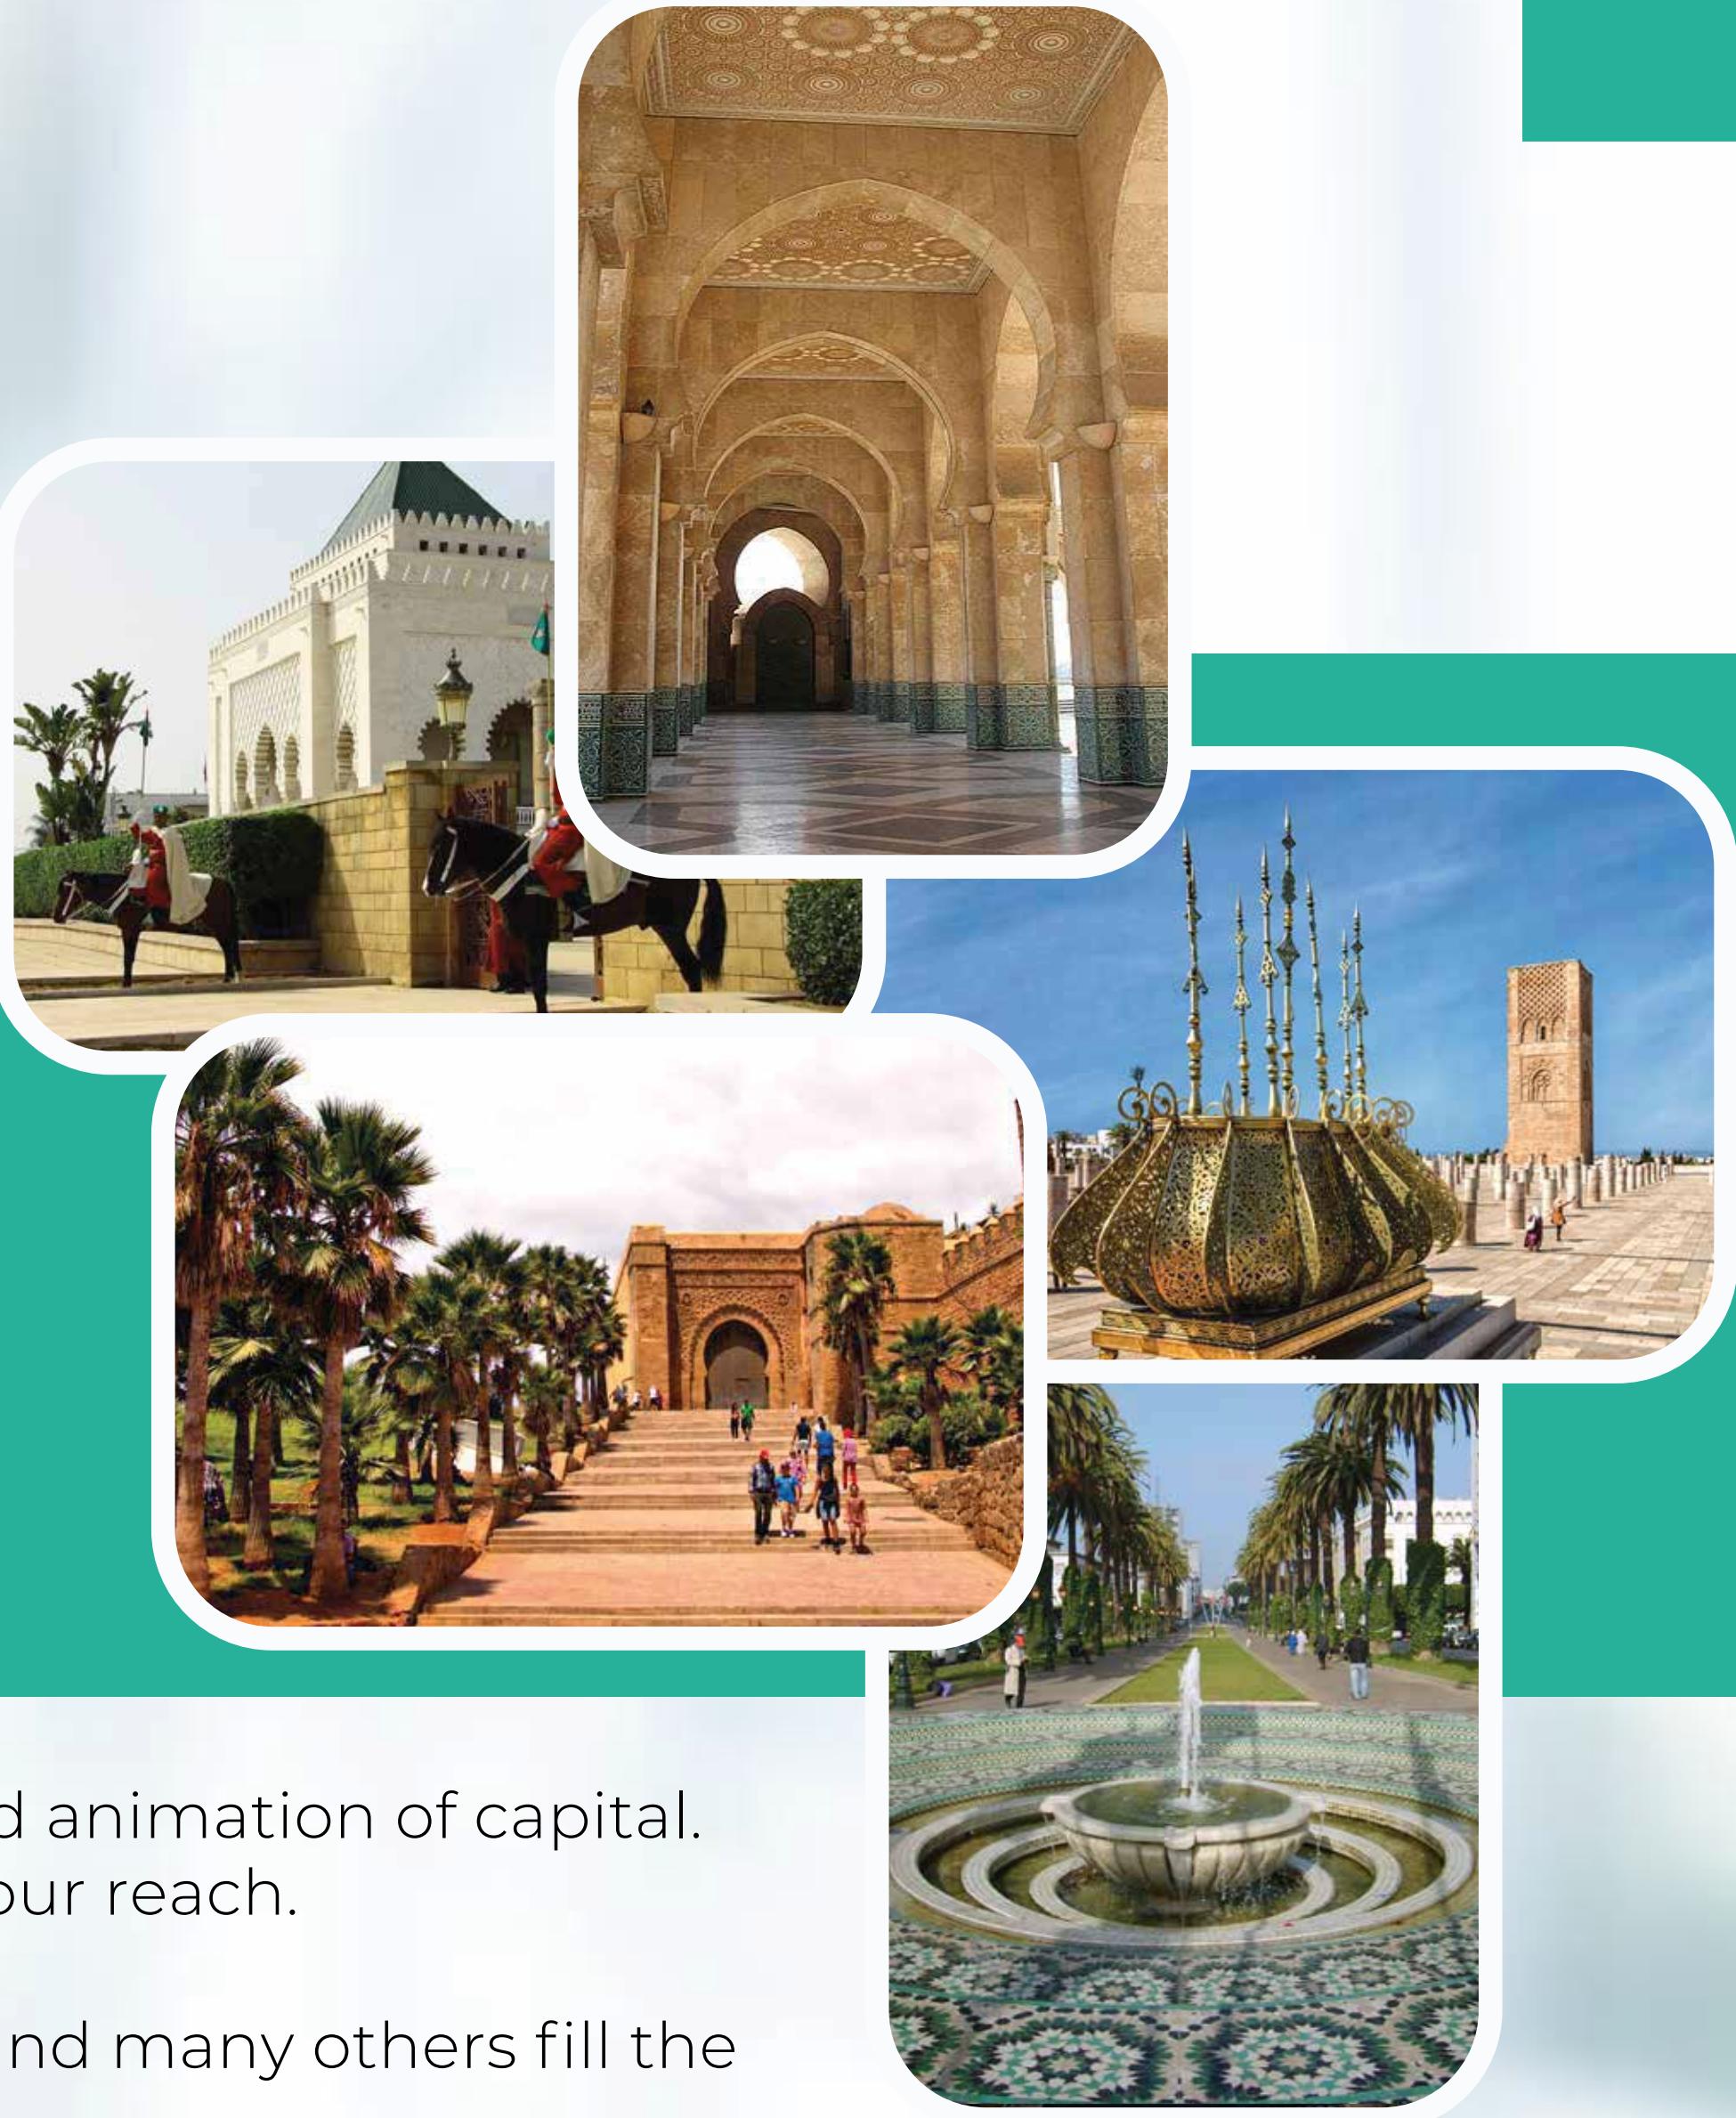

Modern capital steeped in history

Rabat is a cultural city steeped in history. Many masterpieces decorate its streets and squares. Visit the Kasbah of the Oudayas: majestic and formidable area surrounded by gardens. Not far from walls rise the walls of the Chellah, a necropolis from the time of the Merinids. Crossing the enclosure is to enter another world: you walk among ancient remains, among gardens and storks.

Rabat is also an eco-responsible modern capital that gives pride of place to green spaces. Parks punctuate it, such as the Botanical test garden or the Exotic gardens of Bouknadel a few kilometers from the city. And then, flaps coastline: on the shores of the Atlantic, it deploys kilometers of landscaped beaches that lead to neighboring Casablanca.

Modern also by its infrastructures and festivals that participate in your comfort and animation of capital. Airport, tram, shopping centers, cafes and restaurants, all amenities are within your reach.

Finally, there's music that Rabat celebrates like no other: Mawazine, Chellah Jazz and many others fill the atmosphere with sounds and rhythms from all over the world!

AGADIR-TAGHAZOUT

The sun and the beach

In the west of the country, bordered by the waves of the Atlantic, Agadir is one of the pearls of Morocco. Whatever the season, the sun spills its rays and the city enjoys a pleasant climate that the trade winds still soften. Above all, its waterfront, along 10 kilometers, offers tourists magnificent views of the Blue Ocean as well as the opportunity to indulge in idleness in the best conditions.

The main resort of the country, the city with 300 days of sunshine a year, is teeming activities. By the water, cafes and restaurants open their doors to you; you introduce to the local gastronomy and submit their specialties to the judgments lit up with your taste buds! Further into the city, the souk El Had spreads through the streets, displays its stalls: more than 6000 shops are available to your curiosity and you will enjoy strolling in this atmosphere animated by the negotiations of the merchants.

Never asleep, the city hosts every summer the Timitar festival dedicated to World Music and more specifically to Amazigh music. Open to the ocean and the world, Agadir is an active city where it is good to relax.

EL JADIDA

The new Mazagan

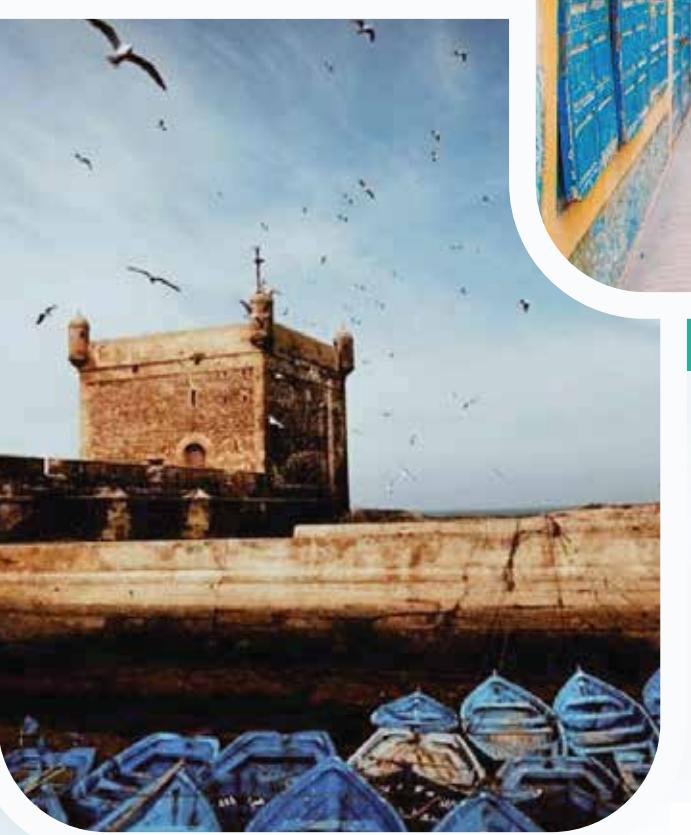

Once nicknamed Mazagan, this city erected by the Portuguese stands with pride facing the ocean since the 16th century. The excellent preservation of its architectural treasures and the fabulous mix of influences between cultures Moroccan and European have earned it a World Heritage listing of humanity by Unesco.

Between a green eucalyptus forest and the splendid beach of El Haouzia, the Kerzner International Group, the originator of the Atlantis complex in Dubai, has also seized the opportunity to create the glitzy resort of Mazagan.

Located between past and modernity, El jadida-Mazagan offers its visitors many activities.

While benefiting from its beaches, the most contemporary golf courses and the festive atmosphere of this seaside resort, discover ancestral traditions during the moussem of Moulay-Abdallah Amghar, where you will attend a falcon training demonstration, as well epic activities such as La Fantazia.

ESSAOUIRA

The Atlantic bride

ESSAOUIRA The Bride Of The Atlantic crenellated walls, the breath of the trade winds, houses with white and blue facades, the color of foam and wave, Essaouira, the ancient Mogador is the "Bride Of The Atlantic".

It is one of those coastal cities where sweetness of life and water activities complements each other. We walk quietly, in the shadow of its ramparts, the very ones who draw the outlines of Astapor, the Red city of the series "Game Of Thrones". We climb these walls, we take the Round way: from here we distinguish the Purple Islands, Hawks, seagulls and gulls that hover above this nature reserve.

In the distance, fans of surfing, windsurfing and kitesurfing do not get tired of the quality of the wind! In the center, the Medina unfolds the interlacing of its alleys. Among the most beautiful in Morocco, it is classified by Unesco. Finally, every summer, the city bathes in music : the Gnaoua festival is held there that celebrates afro-Magreb rhythms.

To welcome you, the Eco-Resort Mogador opens its doors. For several years now, Morocco has adopted a Responsible Tourism and this establishment participates in this ambition as well as the beaches of the surroundings labeled Blue Flag, guarantee of their quality. We rest, we spend, we cultivate: the bewitching Essaouira-Mogador is a destination with a thousand and one possibilities!

OUARZAZATE

the Hollywood of Africa

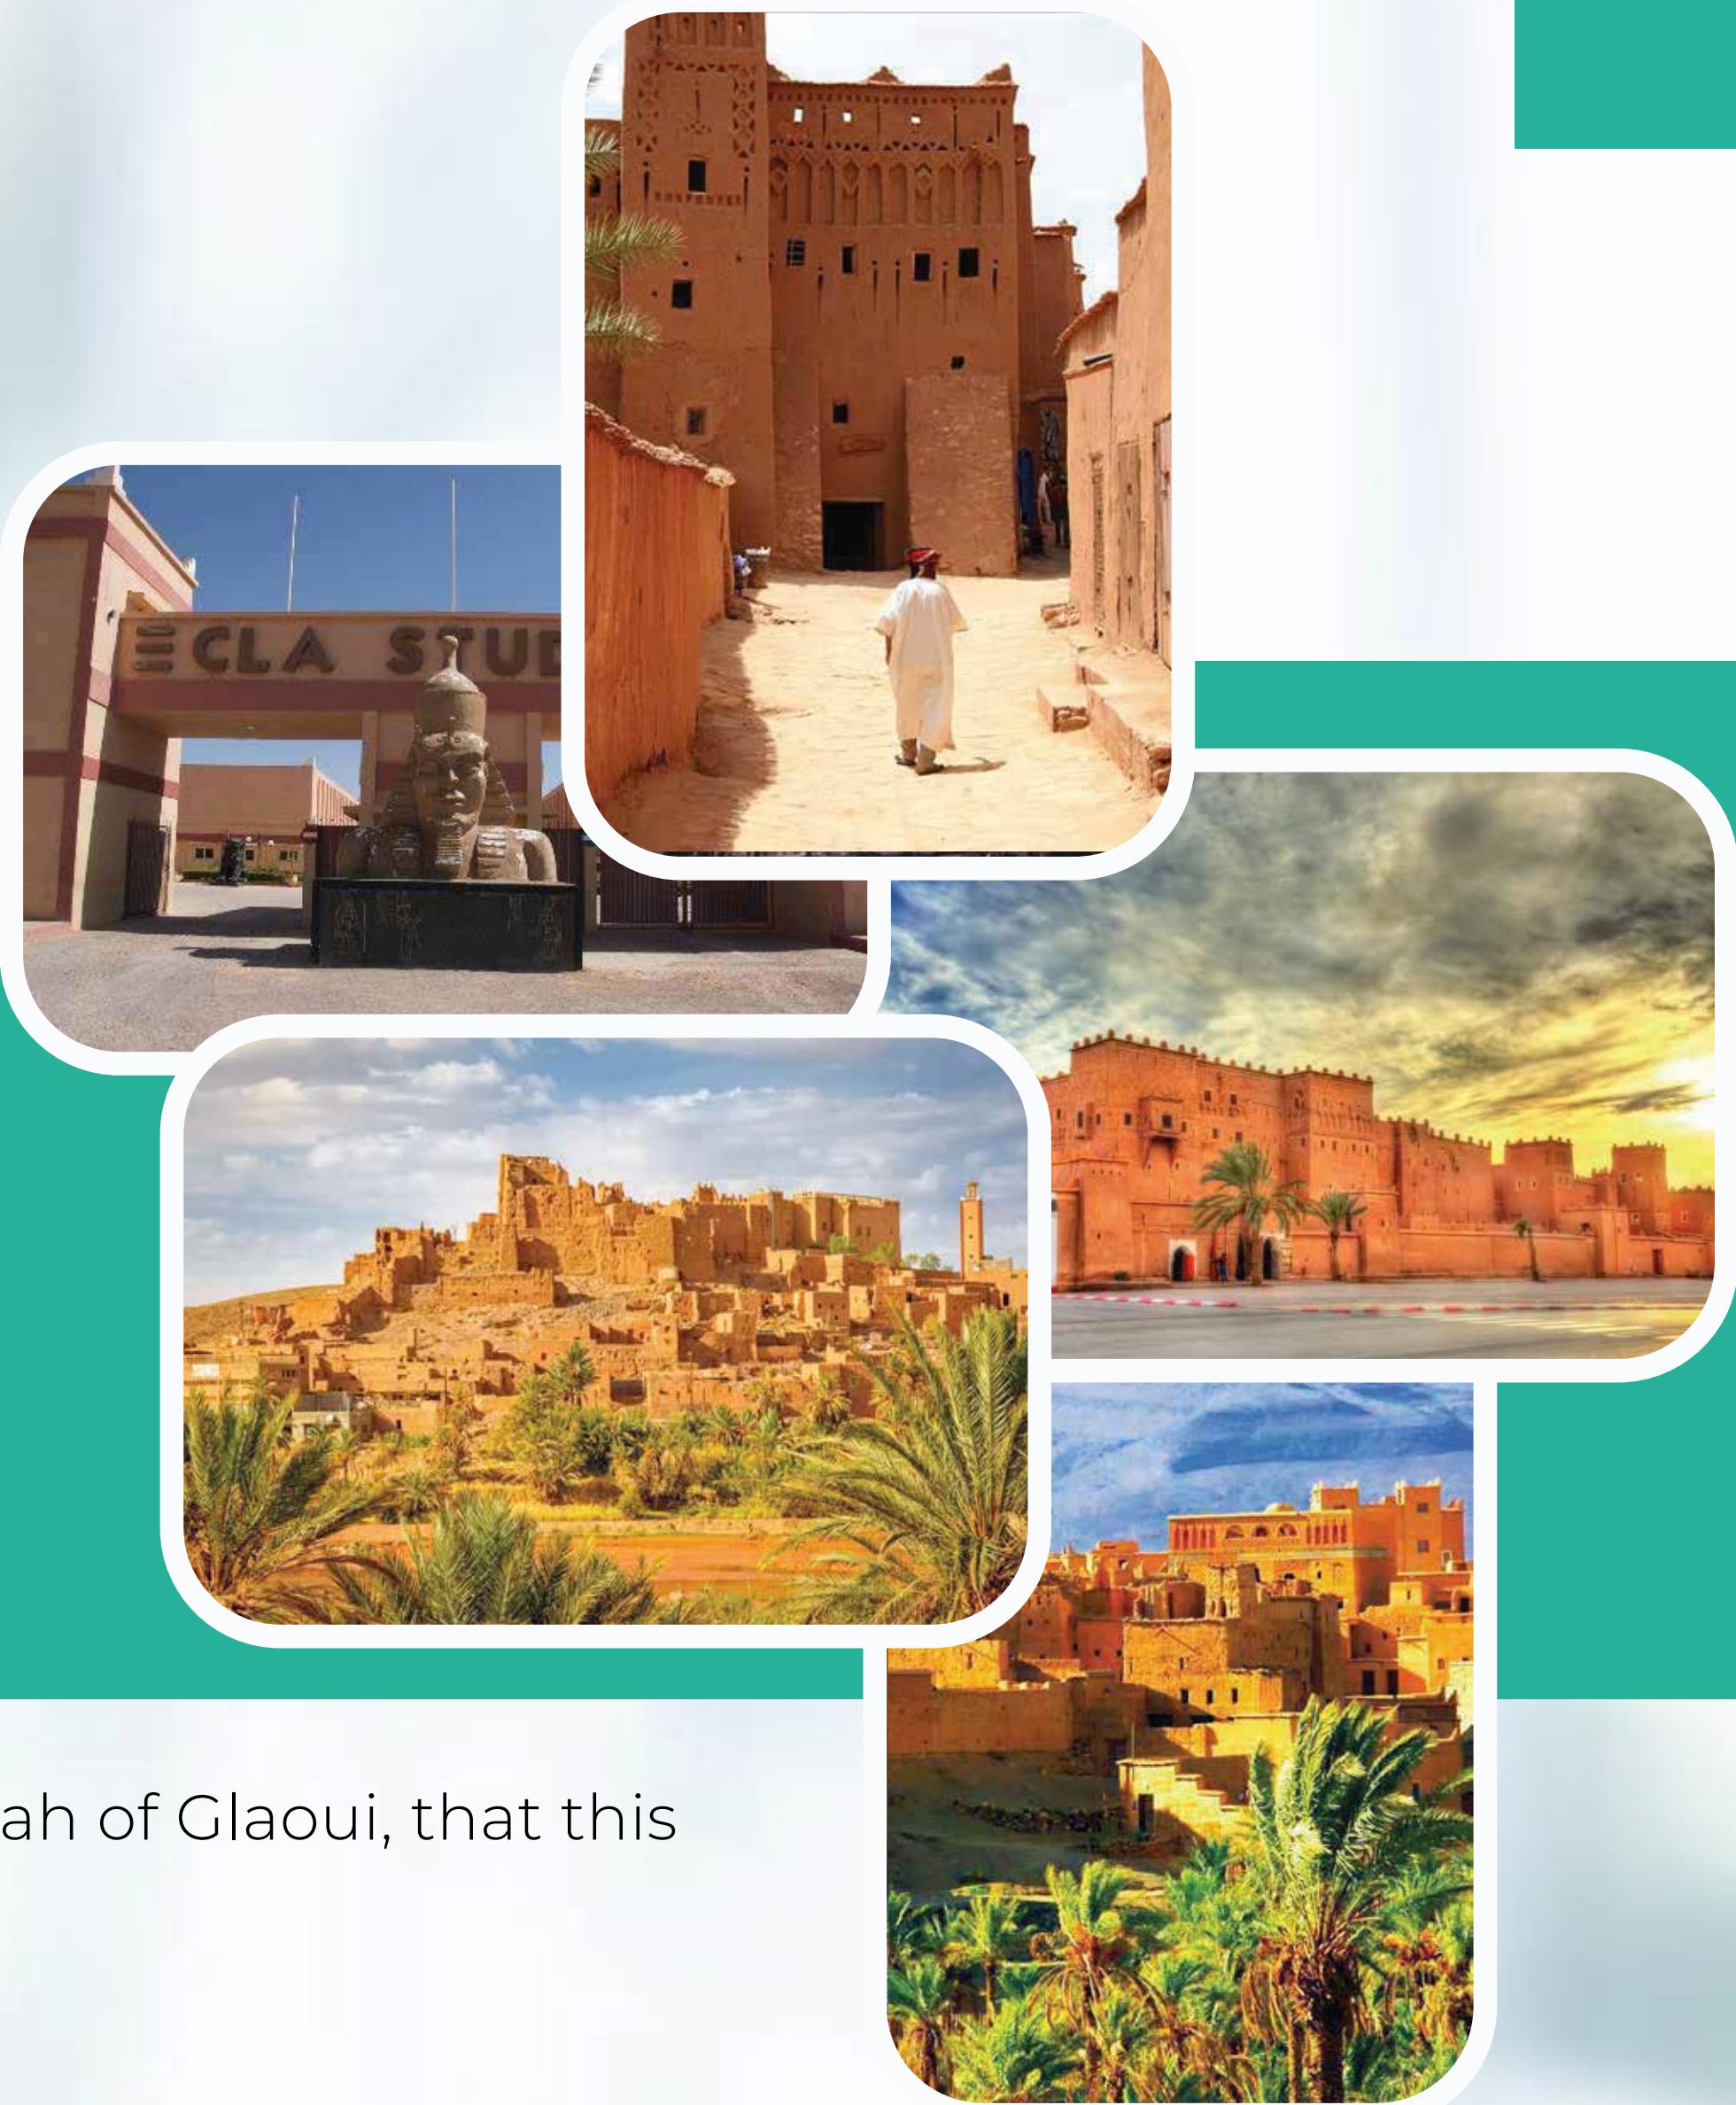

Authentic Destination full of a thousand and one wonders to take your breath away, Ouarzazate, Zagora and Tinghir reveal to visitors a diversity of landscapes incredible, between desert and green valleys.

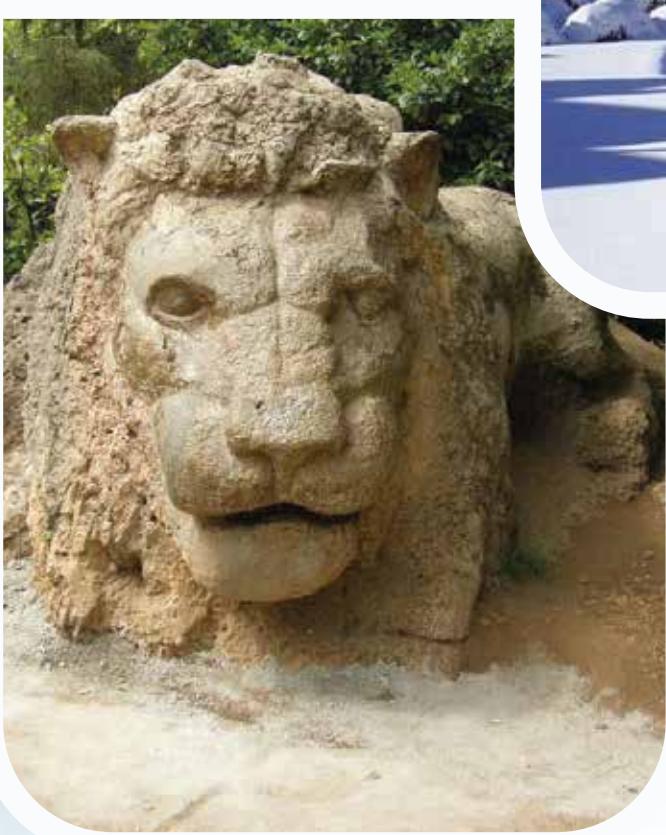

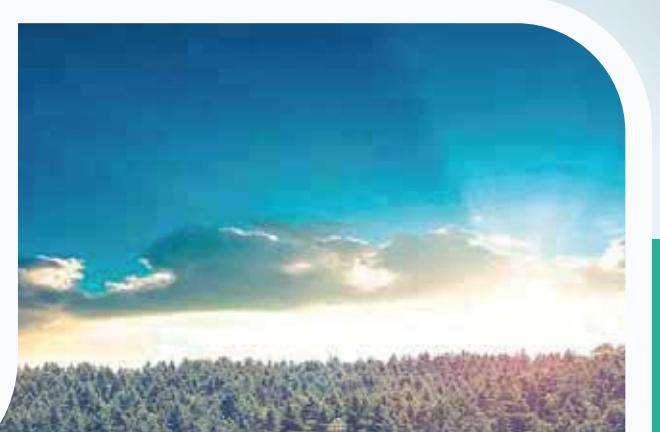

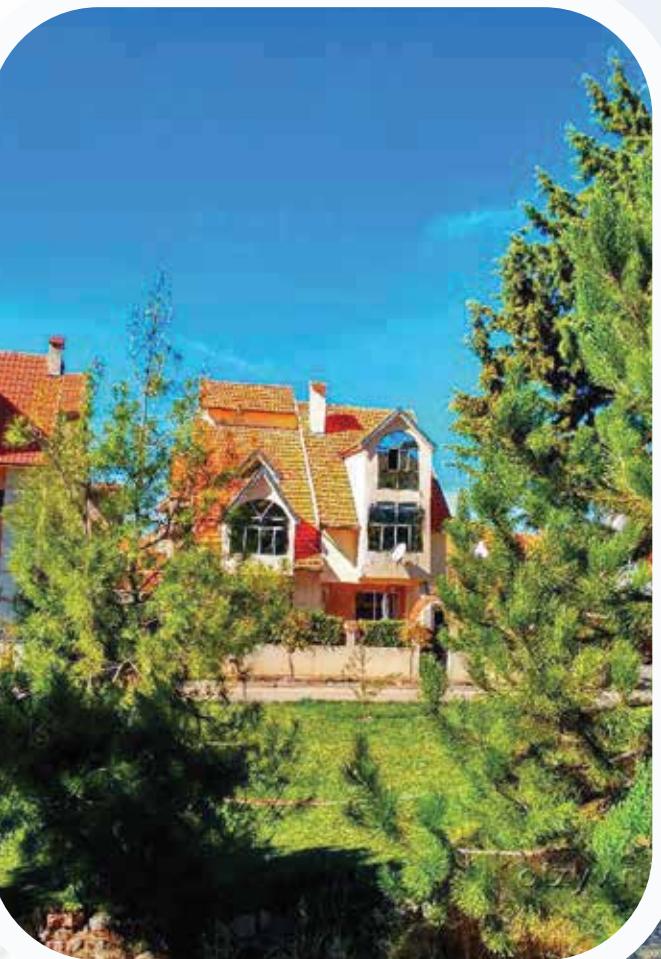

David Lean, Ridley Scott, Martin Scorsese or Alejandro González Iñárritu, come on traces of the most illustrious directors who shot in the sumptuous sets of this city of cinema the masterpieces of the 7th art that are "Lawrence Of Arabia", "Gladiator", "Kundun" and "Babel". Every year, the magic of these places attracts new productions, such as recently that of the series "Prison Break".

Sportsmen eager for adventure and trekking, many tracks will lead you to the desert, to meet the camel drivers and their caravans and this, in the crossing the roads of Draâ, Ziz and Dades, and why not bivouac? There dune of Tinfou, near Zagora, also called the dune "golden sand", you will live an unforgettable experience!

As for Tinghir, enjoy your passage to admire its splendid panorama, from the Kasbah of Glaoui, that this city of the High Atlas you offer on its palm grove and the Todra gorges.

At the gates of the desert, nothing is too beautiful!

IFRANE

Green setting

Ifra is the Morocco of the heights, that of the Atlas and its majestic reliefs. Perched at 1,650 meters above sea level, the city surprises the traveler. She participates in the wealth of experiences that can be lived in Morocco. There, lakes on the wave quiet, waterfalls that pour their cold waters into the valleys. All around, the largest cedar forest in the world. These trees shape their silhouettes solemn on the slopes of the Middle Atlas they cover with a mantle of greenery.

The purity of Ifra air depends on a delicate balance. To preserve it, the city is enclosed in a natural park. Walking there is a delight ; you will enjoy browse these beautiful places. The hiking trails are numerous, among the most beautiful in the country. A rich and varied fauna accompanies you in your steps. At the bend of a path, it is a macaque that amuses you with its antics; further away, in retreat, proud and fearful, a prickly deer watches over you.

Ifra is also a heritage. The city is its own show that a small train allows you to discover. On board, you crisscross some of the cleanest streets in the world, you discover a typical regional crafts: there are upholsterers who make their works; here, a weaving matter there finally, a shop of pottery or wooden objects of Thuja where line up charming trinkets.

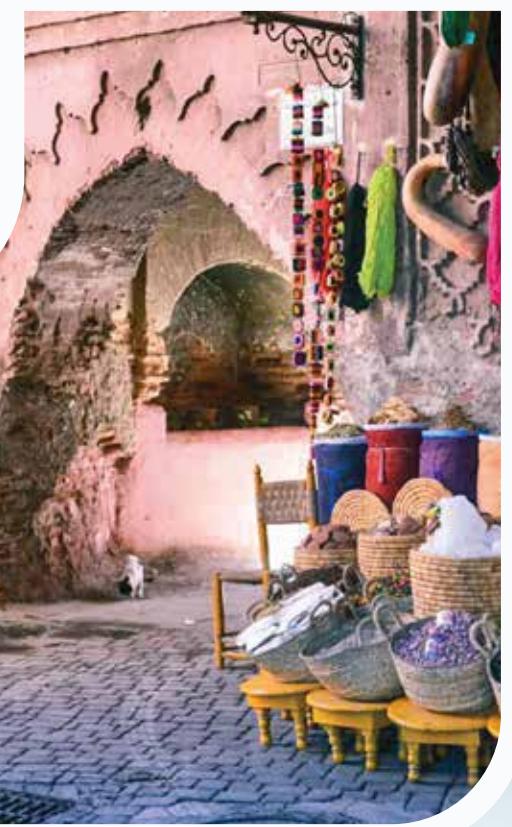

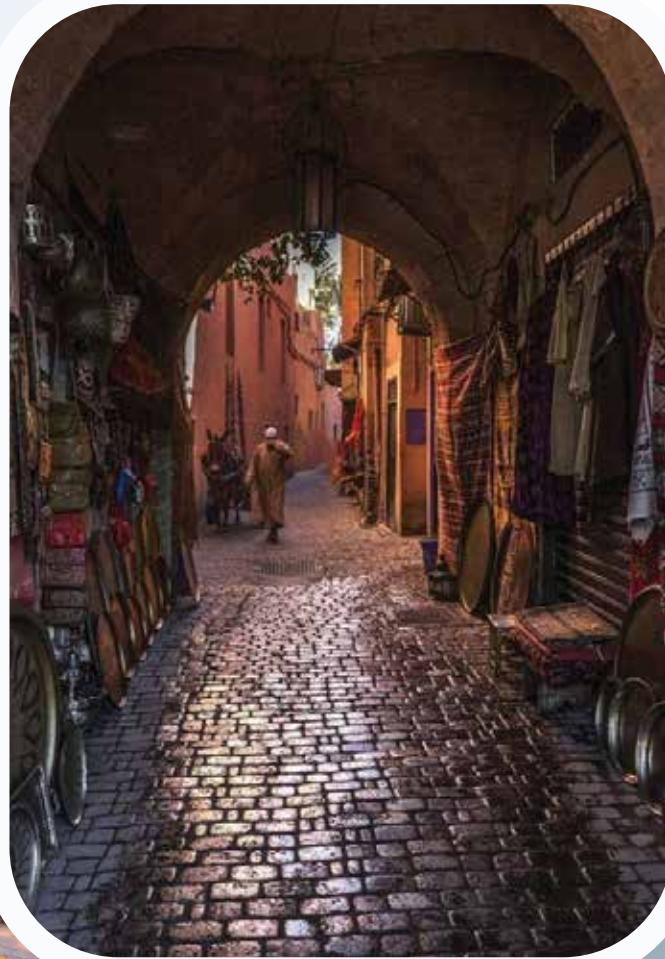

MARRAKECH

Eternal, the inevitable

Between tradition and modernity, Marrakech is the promise of incomparable sensations. In strolling through the Jemaa El-Fna Square and the shimmering souks and the Oriental smells, the Red city responds with a snap of your fingers to your desires for change of scenery. Carriage rides, sunny terraces, travelling artists and others day and night activities will punctuate your stay in Morocco.

You can admire all the architectural richness of the Medina by visiting one of its numerous riads, small Oriental palaces organized around a central patio, or relax in La Ménara, a large garden with emblematic Basin of the city. Because, Marrakech leaves the choice to its visitors by tapping into its incredible diversity. It just leave the walls to be immersed in contemporary Morocco. The districts of Guéliz and Hivernage offer the most modern infrastructure, international luxury and ready-to-wear shops and wide avenues all in the respect of the cachet proper to Marrakech.

Sign of a growing economic effervescence, they are also festive and cultural places with the presence of the Palais des Congrès and the splendid Théâtre Royal. Profitez of Marrakech in night mode by investing the many themed venues, trendy clubs and parties traditional that reflect the joie de vivre of its inhabitants.

OUJDA-SAÏDIA

Mediterranean Splendor

Saïdia is the Moroccan preserved Mediterranean that of the blue and warm waters, holidays with family or friends. If the desire takes you for walks citadines, visit Oujda, its architectural heritage and its intact Medina will delight you!

The sea for horizon, 14 kilometers of white sand beach and a generous Sun that shines throughout the year: Saïdia is a small piece of paradise, the resort seaside resort par excellence of northern Morocco. At the edge of the water or nearby, many activities are at your fingertips such as water sports or golf. In the evening, it is on the marina that you go, to taste the specialties of region.

60 km from Saïdia, in the land, Oujda reveals the richness of its long history. Heritage is here in the spotlight. There is the Medina and its monumental gates; there is the Sebti palace, high place of cultural life; finally, further, the Lalla Aicha Park, a haven of freshness in the very heart of the city.

Oujda-Saïdia is all this, the pleasures of the spirit and those of recreation, enough to spend a superb stay!

ERRACHIDIA

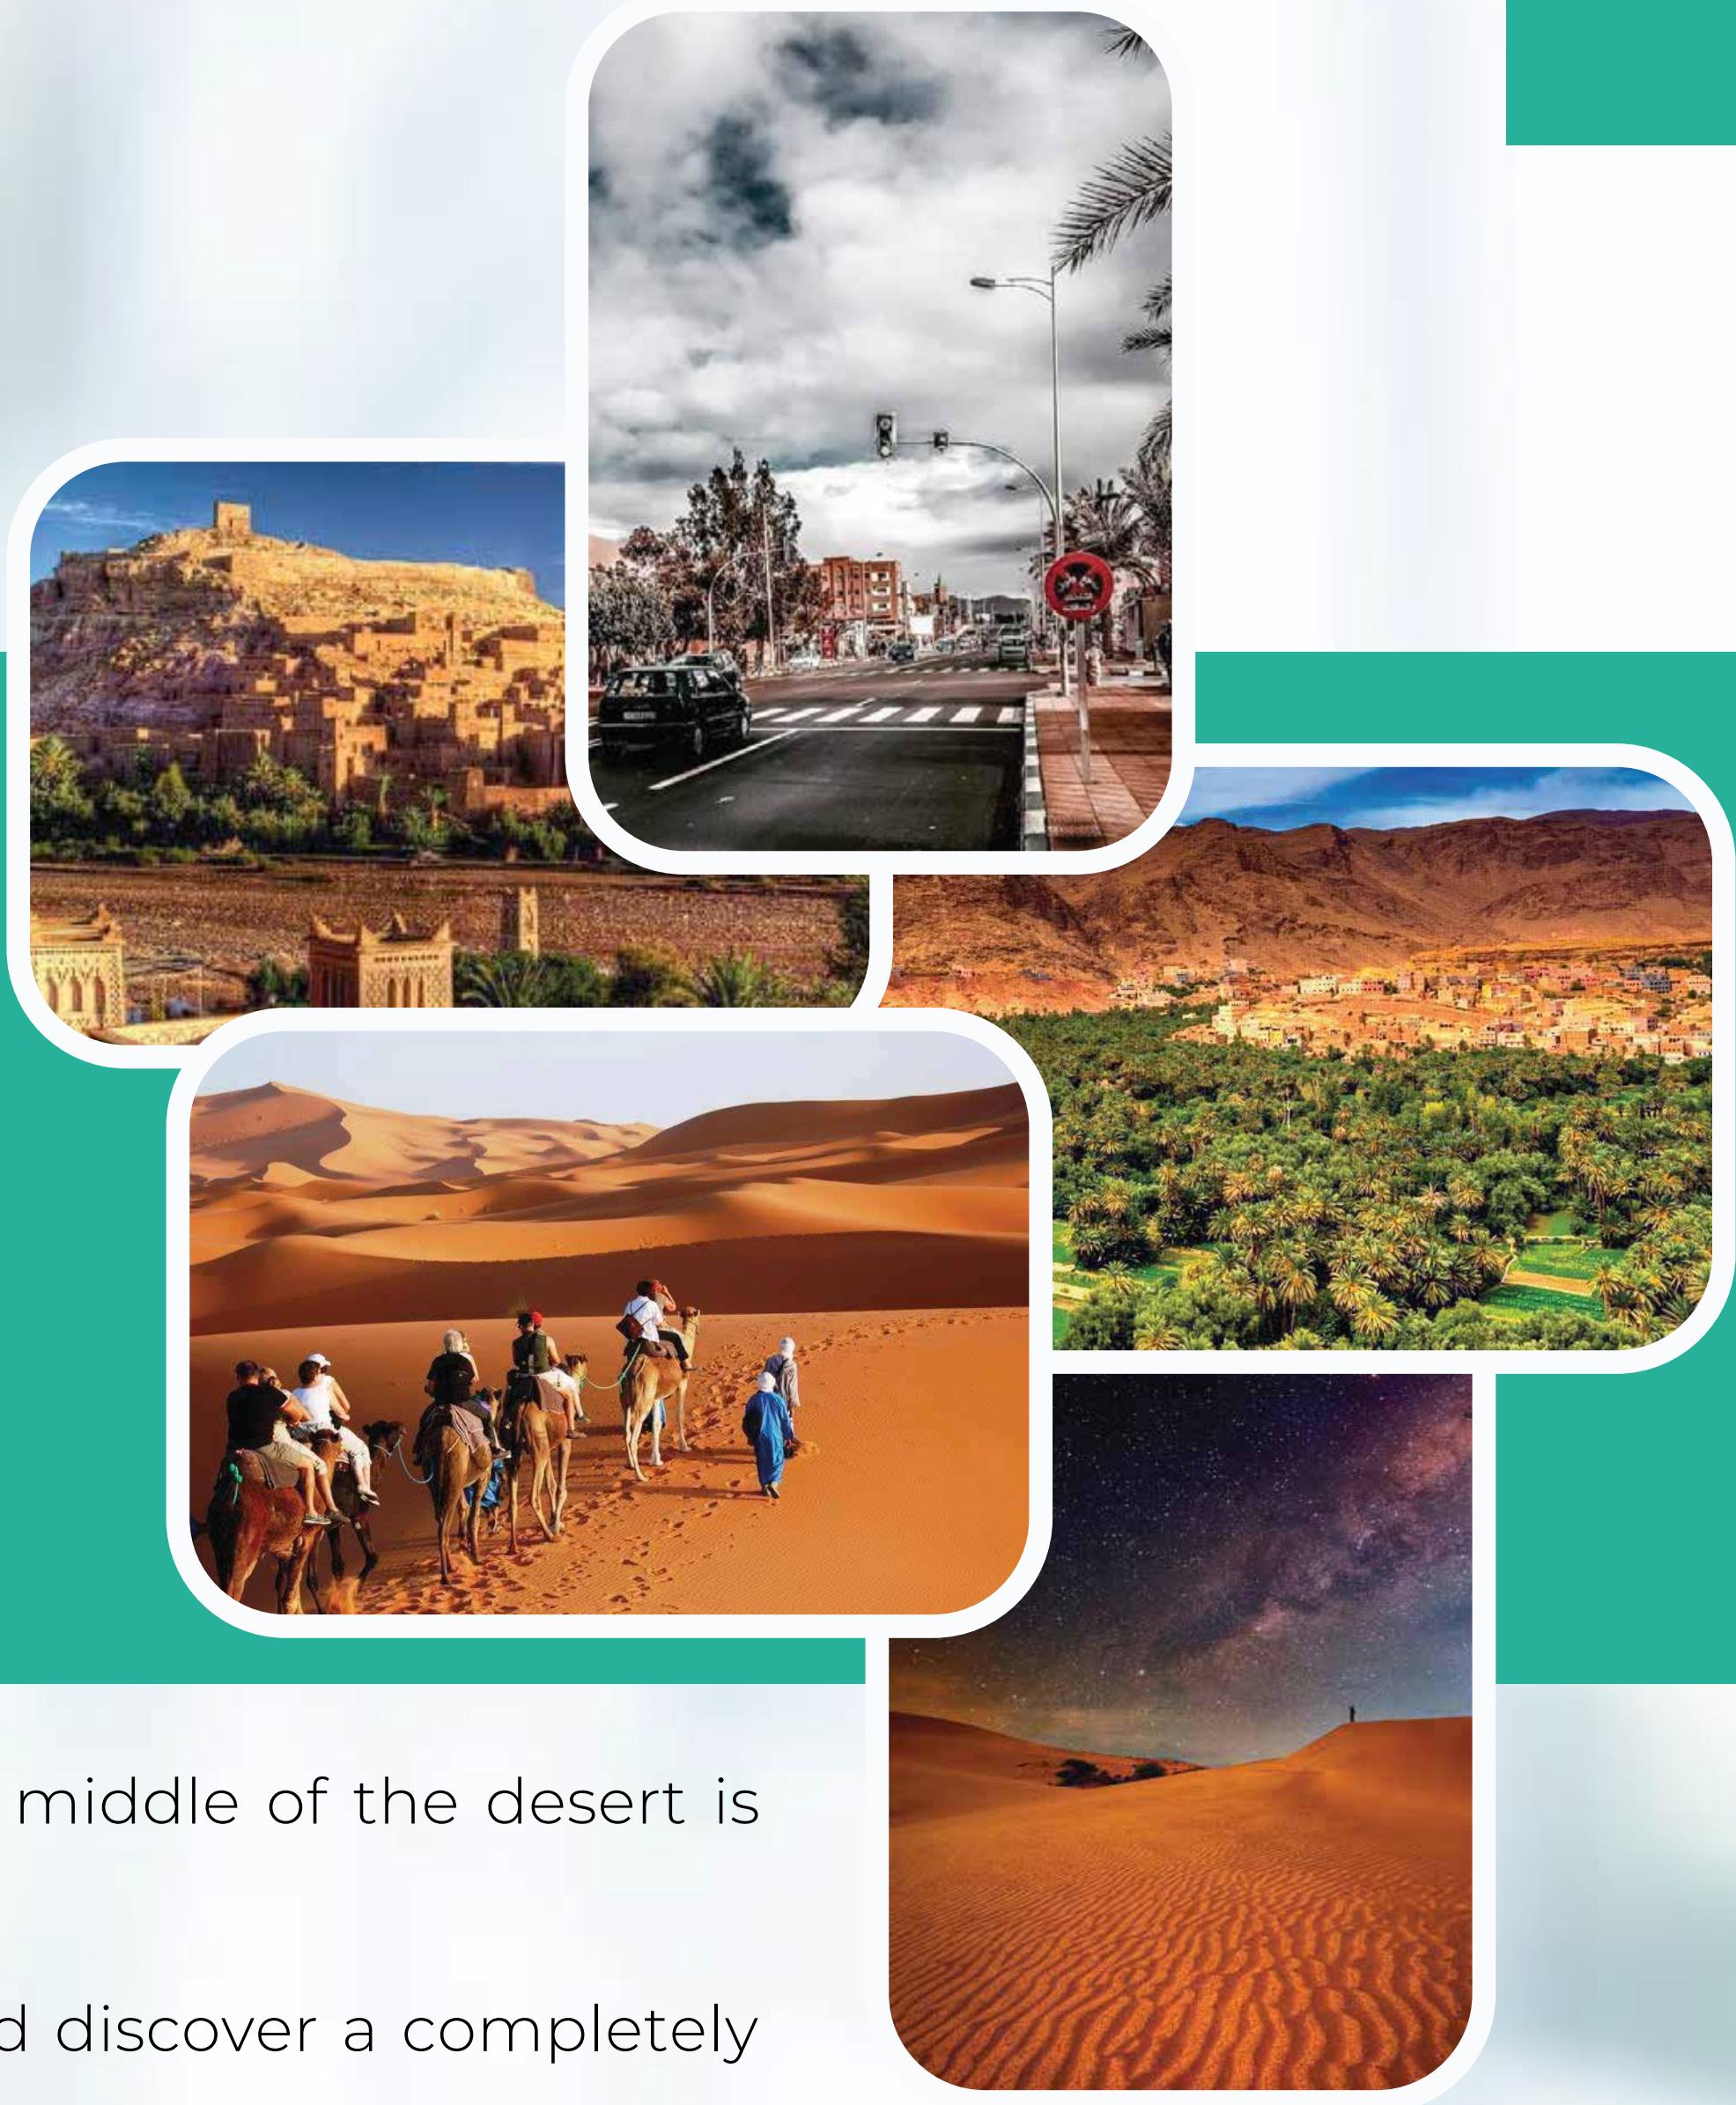

Between the atlas and the desert

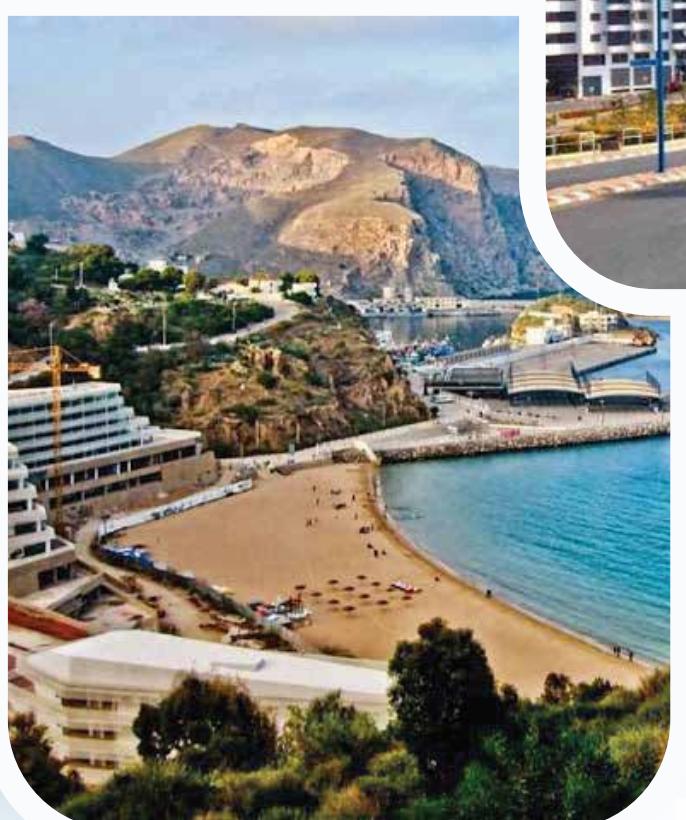

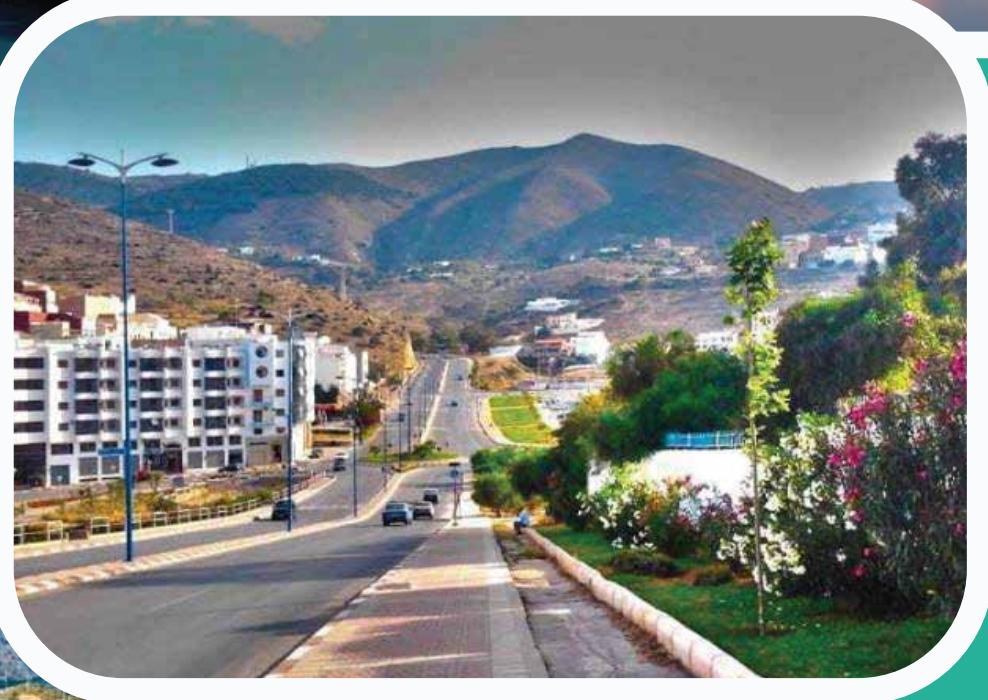

Midelt, Errachidia and Merzouga open the doors of eastern Morocco to you! The two first cities discover a country of mountains with the reliefs of the Middle Atlas that draw natural paintings. This majestic setting seduces, bewitches. It is also from there that the caravans that were leaving went loaded with food to Timbuktu, here they were returning.

Merzouga is one of the gates of the Sahara, a small village lost in the middle of sanded. It is the territory of erg Chebbi, a world of dunes, palm groves, of trails and hikes. Travel the desert; discover these expanses of sand bathed in Sun and silence. You walk in the middle of these arid immensity when, at the bend of a dune, you distinguish a lake: it is the Dayet Srij.

Stilts are planted in its waters, above fly doves and wagtails, hover stork. In the middle of the desert is established one of the richest ecosystems of Morocco.

The east of Morocco is full of sights. Surrender to the mountains and deserts and discover a completely different country!

AL HOCEIMA

A dream destination in the Mediterranean

The blue waters of the Mediterranean, its gentle and light waves and the coastline which draws the contours of one of the most beautiful bays in Morocco, here is the painting that nature composes in Al Hoceima. The places have a look of earthly paradise.

On one of the many beaches that stretch around, you relax on a chaise longue; you enjoy the sun and its health benefits. Under these always clear skies, idleness is in the spotlight! But El Hoceima is not just a seaside town. Its surroundings contain treasures that the most adventurous will enjoy discovering. A little away from the town, near the fishing village of Torres de Alcala, stand the ruins five guard towers. The Portuguese had built them while they occupied the area. Today, the site offers pleasant perspectives of walk to all lovers of old stones!

In the city itself, the port is worth a visit. Its edges are animated by the activity of fishermen and it makes good to walk there. Further on, the Moro Viejo corniche offers you a magnificent spectacle: advancing to through the city, it ends at one end of the Bay and offers a breathtaking view of surroundings.

AZILAL

Azilal and the Valley of Happiness

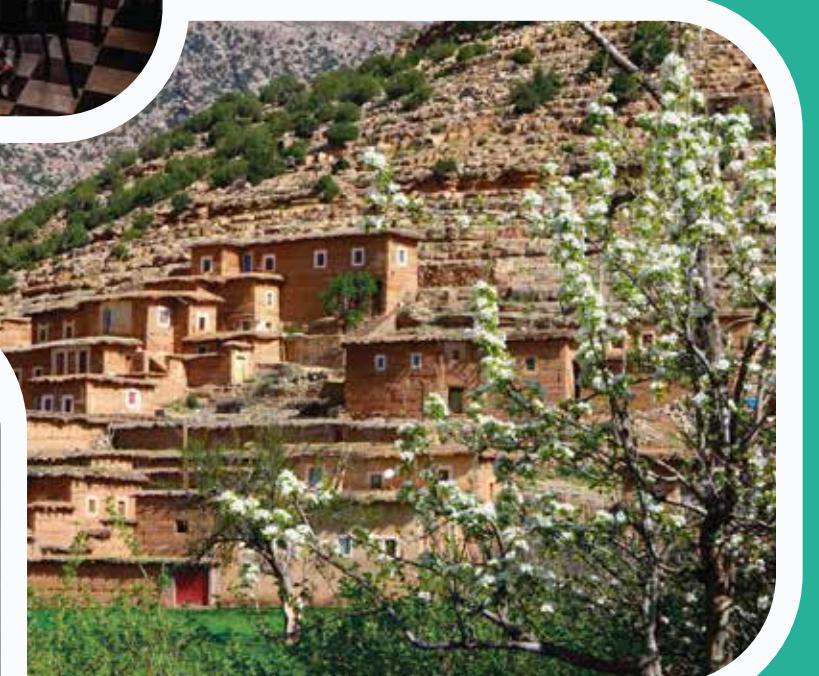

Extend your stay in Morocco and visit the attractive town, Azilal. Located in the center of the Atlas Mountains, this city is teeming with charming landscapes. Its unique vivid culture, crafts and architecture, has contributed to develop a responsible and supportive ecotourism that attracts more and more tourists.

Come and enjoy a rich and varied gastronomy : from Amazigh couscous, to fish tagine, to olive tagine with argan oil.

You'll be seduced by the many natural wonders in front of you ! Contemplate the splendid waterfalls of Ouzoud, and let yourself be surprised by the amazing natural bridge of Imi N'Ifri, near Demnate. Admire the azure blue water of the lake of Bin El Widane, and refresh yourself in the gorges of the Ahansal wadi or to take a walk in the very beautiful natural reserve of Tamga.

Last stopover, the Aït Bouguemez valley that bears well its nickname « valley of happy people ». Surrounded by the majestic M'goun mountain, the valley culminates at more than 4,071 meters.

Meet the local inhabitants over a traditional mint tea and succulent Moroccan pastries.

DAKHLA

The Pearl of the Moroccan South

Dakhla is a small piece of paradise in the south of Morocco, lost between the waters of the Atlantic and the sands of the Sahara. Being there is a delight to consume without moderation. Miles of beaches stretch across the city: the opportunity to relax, the opportunity also to engage in all kinds of water activities.

These shores are among the most beautiful in Morocco. Isolated from the world by the desert surrounding, they are a real haven of peace, the ideal place to bask. In the vicinity, two beaches are particularly famous, that of PK25 and that of De Foum El Bouir. The first is prized by lovers of idleness : it is a place of relaxation, where you bathe quietly in the calm and crystal clear waters of the lagoon, while in Foum El Bouir, the atmosphere is more lively. It is a site dedicated to gliding pleasures. Sufiers, kitesurfers and windsurfers, whether amateur or professionals, meet here, let themselves be carried by the waves and winds.

Further on, the Dragon point is another internationally renowned spot: the waves are there impressive and the most famous surfers have already engulfed in these spectacular tubes that are hundreds of meters. Gateway to the desert, opening onto sub-Saharan Africa, Dakhla is also and above all a gateway to paradise!

SAFI

Atlantic pearl

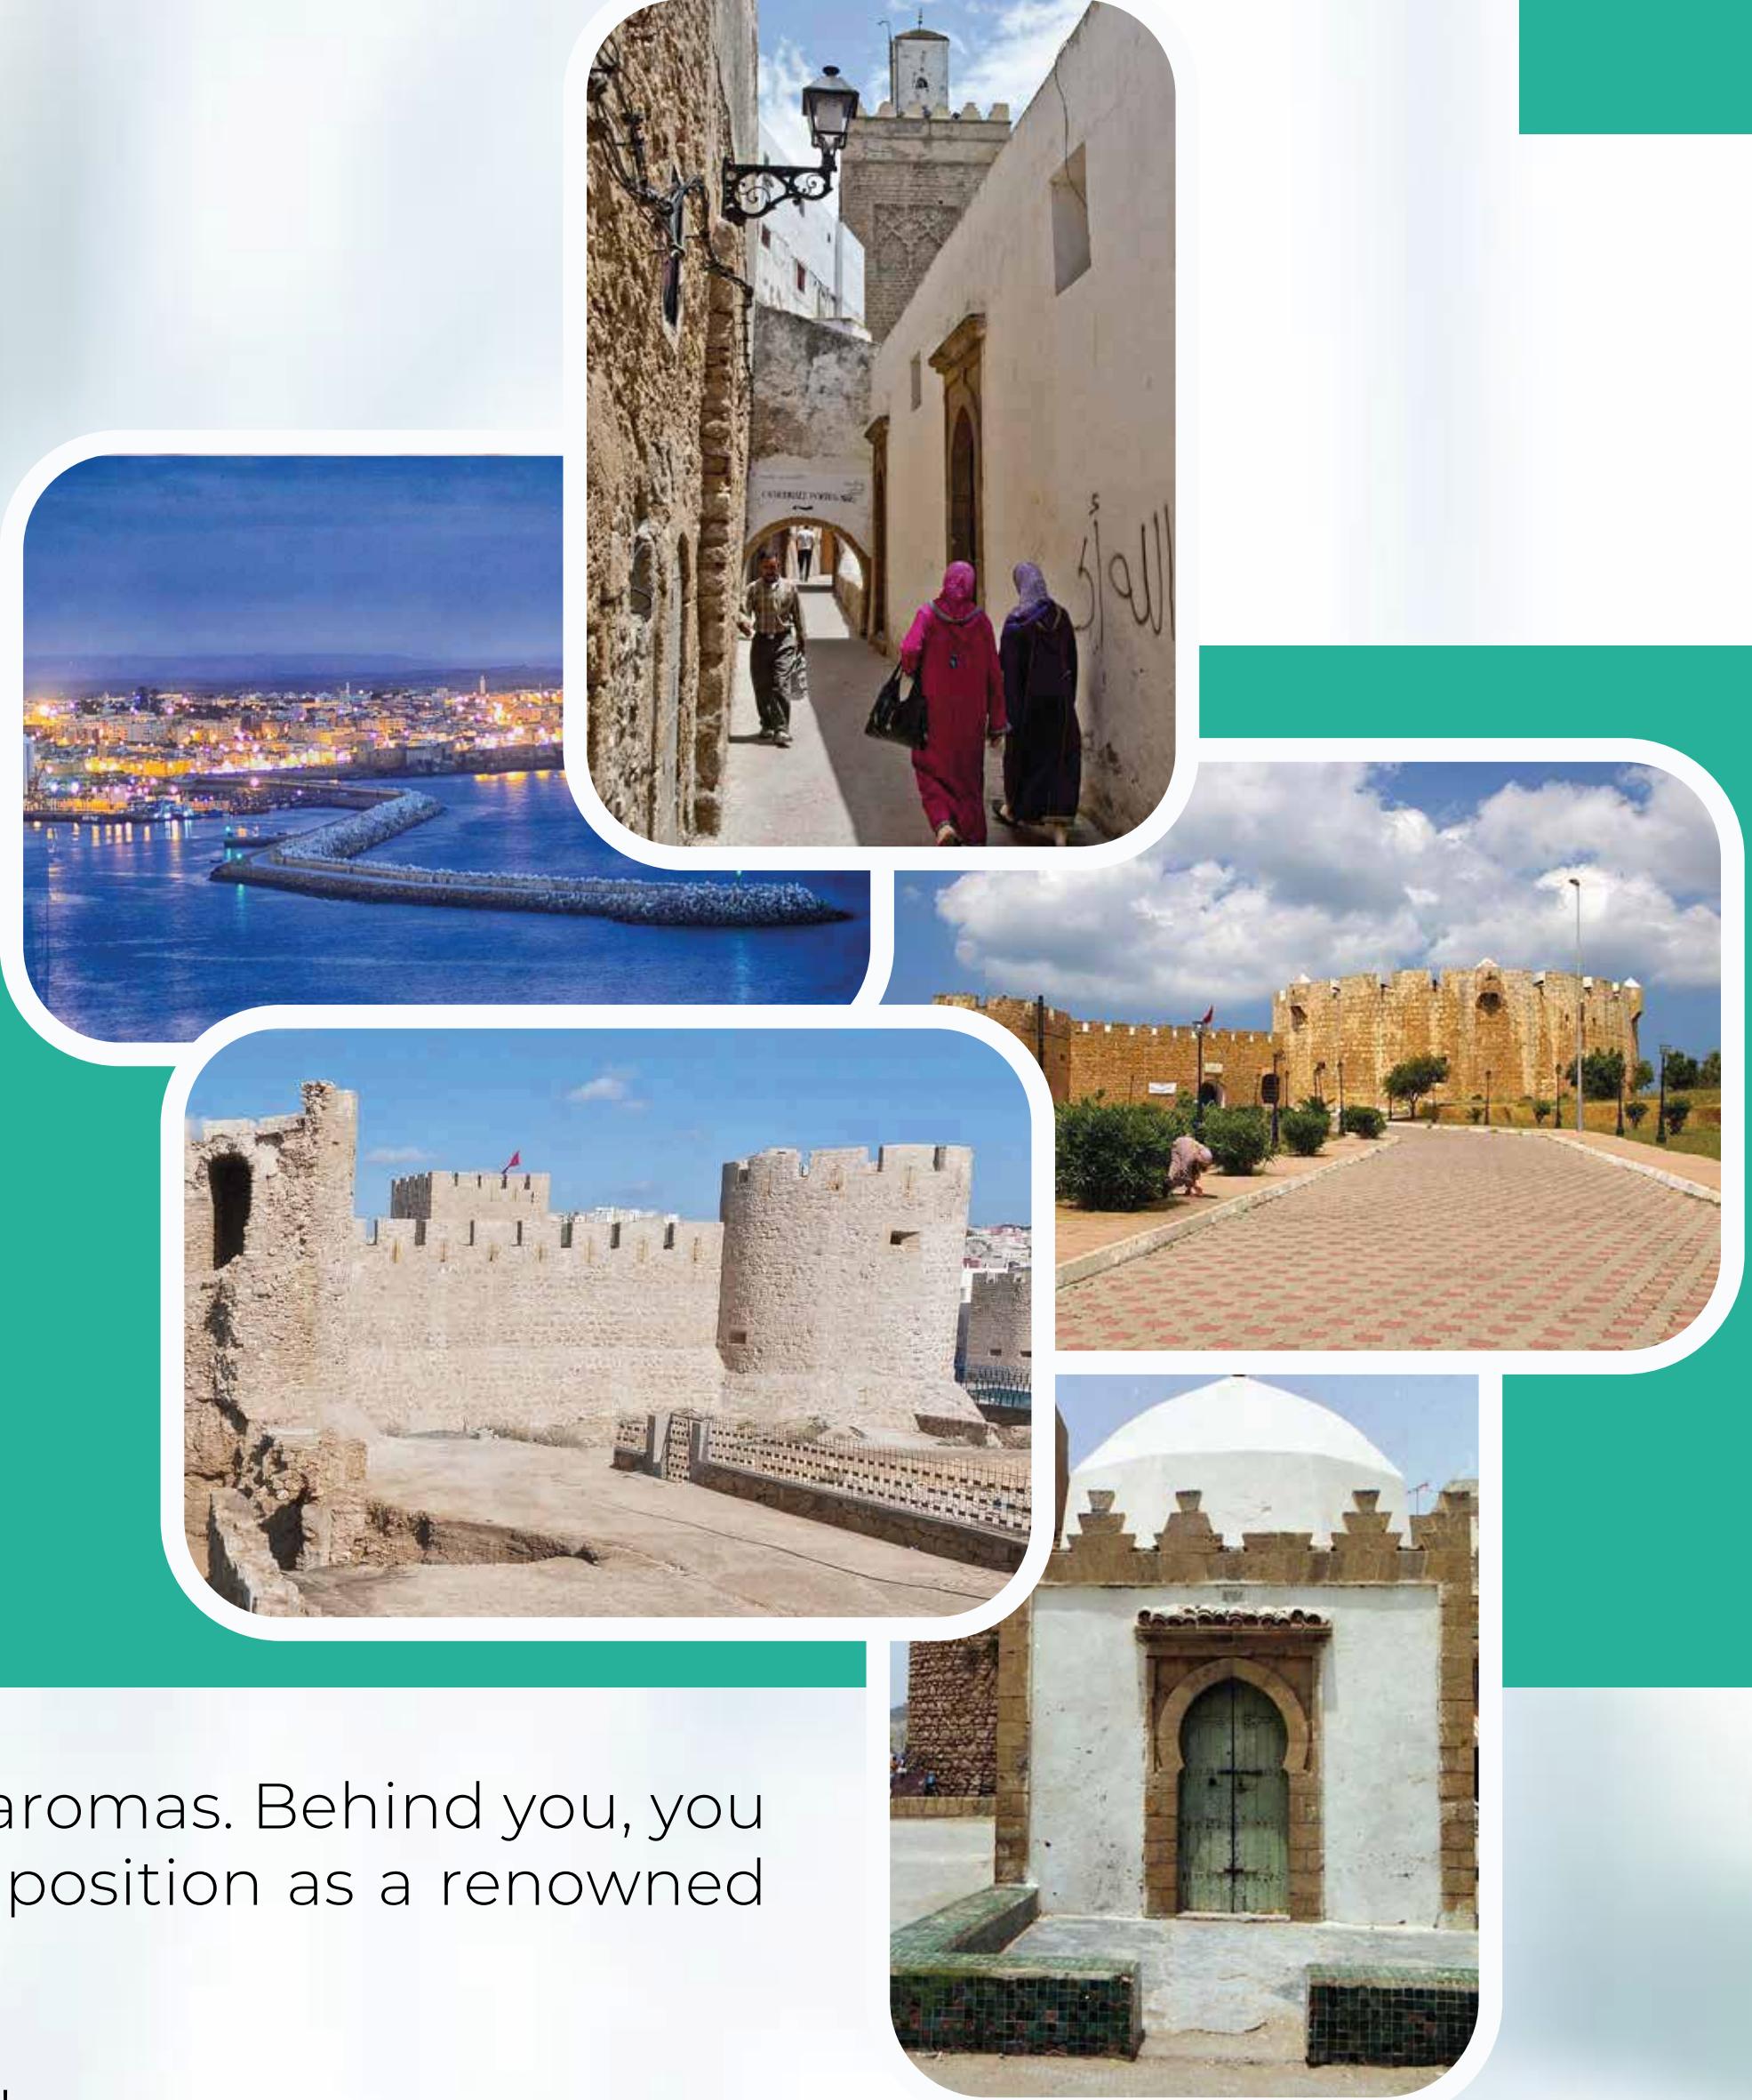

The splendid architecture of Kechla and the waters of the Atlantic crashing against its walls: this is one of the many outstanding popular paintings in Safi. For five centuries now, the fortress has stood as a sentinel on the shores of the ocean. Its high crenellated towers offer admirable views of the surrounding area. It is an opportunity to admire the seafront, the bustling and animated life of this provincial capital.

The pottery district is particularly attractive. Craftsmen make marvels of terracotta and clay that is put on display in the windows and stalls of their shops. Safi is one of the Moroccan capitals of ceramics and in its streets, beautiful trinkets are designed to make charming souvenirs.

Atop the Kechla, admire the old Medina. The labyrinth of its alleys and their narrowness have something mysterious about them that invites you to take a stroll.

A little far away, you'll get to the Rue du Souk : you can hear echoes and smell the aromas. Behind you, you can hear the impressive rolling waves. All of Safi assets won it an internationally position as a renowned surfing spot.

When you think that you've seen it all, Safi surprises you with its hidden treasures !

TANGIER-TETOUAN

Mythical destination

In the north of Morocco, the cities of Tangier and Tetouan welcome travelers. On these shores where the Mediterranean and Atlantic waters converge, you discover authentic cities lulled with varied influences.

Stroll through Tangier La Blanche. Stroll through the streets that line the houses coated with lime and, like Matisse before you, like Delacroix too, let yourself be carried away by this dreamy air that emanates from the city. Get lost in the alleys of the grand Socco; at the foot of the high walls of the Kasbah, admire the fortress which dominates the Medina. Not far away, it is the Sultan's Palace today dedicated to the arts of Morocco. Tangier is also Spanish influences with an arena that stands on the Plaza de Torros, not to mention the Cervantes theater built in 1913.

A similar atmosphere reigns in Tetouan. She is "the daughter of Granada", a city in hispano-Moorish architecture. Its medina is registered as a heritage world of humanity by UNESCO.

Not far from Tetouan, the resort of Tamuda Bay deploys 15 kilometers of Sandy Bay. Soon prestigious establishments have settled there, giving a chic cachet to the region.

Relaxation and art of living are assured with the horizon, the blue waters of the Mediterranean. At the crossroads, the cities of Tangier and Tetouan mix cultures and offer a splendid Mediterranean façade!

CASABLANCA

L'énergie de la modernité

Beautiful palm trees lining its paths, with the Atlantic ocean over the horizon, and large business buildings in every corner : Casablanca is the economic lung of Morocco ; a bustling metropolis.

Modern infrastructures are in the middle of charming districts, between Arab-Muslim heritage and legacies of the colonial period. Discover all the possibilities : take a stroll in the medina, which is one of latest medinas built in Morocco, roam through the centre and its art-deco buildings, and join the Hassan II mosque ; the splendid of architecture built on the water.

Let yourself be tempted by the festive side of the city. Take advantage of the cornice, its clubs and festivals too, such as the Casablanca Festival, Jazzablanca or Tremplin L'Boulevard.

The coastline, bordered by beaches equipped to suit all your comfort, invites you to experience the most fun activities that will make your stay more enjoyable, from diving, to jet-skiing to boating.

The White city, Casablanca, is where culture and serenity activities blend seamlessly.

TAROUDANT

The small Taroudant

The city seems a jewel, one of the most beautiful in Morocco. Stroll in the shade of its walls steeped in history and whose towers have stood for more than five centuries to protect the former capital of the Saadian sultans. All day, the sun hits these high columns of stones and bathes the city with a light where the gold of its rays disputes it with the ochre of the walls. City of history, rich of a long past, Taroudant is however not one of these cities museums, frozen in a bygone grandeur.

Here, the dynamism of modern life is blends harmoniously with the legacy of tradition. Its souks abound in activity: venture in the middle of these alleys, negotiate with merchants, especially, on the stalls, discover all the richness of the terroir and local crafts. The leathers are there particularly famous as well as terracotta trinkets and Amazigh jewelry.

The city has all the assets and Taroudant is also the starting point of many hikes. Located in the middle of the two chains of the Atlas, she benefits from a situation favorable that take hikers and adventurers.

Taroudant also specialized in the production of argan oil. See you at outside the ramparts, a little away from the city. There, you discover cooperatives, individuals also who peel these nuts, who press them, extract the substantial marrow from them and make whole oils dedicated to your well-being.
